More Places to Explore

• Donaldina Cameron House: rescue mission for Chinese slave girls, now youth center. 920 Sacramento St.
• Old Saint Mary’s Square: nice park, statue of Dr. Sun Yat Sen and memorial to fallen Chinese-American soldiers.
• Buddhist Temple: largest in U.S. 720 Washington.
• Gold Mountain Monastery: 800 Sacramento St.
• Nam Kue Chinese School: teaches children Chinese writing and culture, built 1926. 755 Sacramento St.
• Chinese Cultural Center: art exhibits, classes. 750 Kearny St. 3rd floor (in Hilton Hotel).
• Redwood Grove Park: behind Transamerica Building, former location of saloon where Mark Twain, Robert Louis Stevenson, Ambrose Bierce, Bret Harte hung out.
• Li Po Lounge: kitschy, Tiki-themed dive bar, famous for Chinese Mai Tais. 916 Grant Ave.
• Eastern Bakery: oldest Chinese bakery in Chinatown. 720 Grant Ave.

Shops

• Chinatown Kite Shop: 717 Grant.
• Vital Tea Leaf Shops: tea tasting, 509, 905, & 1044 Grant.
• The Wok Shop: treat for chefs, 718 Grant.
• Old Shanghai Emporium: interesting things to buy, 645 Grant.
• Ming Lee Trading: amazing Asian snacks shop, 759 Jackson.
• Clarion Music Shop: instruments from around the world, 816 Sacramento.
• Eastwind Books & Arts: huge collection of Chinese-related books, 1435 Stockton St.
More Places to Explore

Historic Chinatown Alleys

• Duncombe Alley: used to be lined with opium dens.
• St. Louis Alley: site of slave market, late 1880’s, early 1900’s.
• Beckett Alley and Wentworth Alley: were lined with brothels.
• Commercial Street: 2 famous brothels, #742, “Parisian Mansion”, and #751, Rube Goldberg’s house.
• Spofford Street: Dr. Sun Yat Sen lived at #36 while planning overthrow of ruling Chinese dynasty.